Fund Raising

Tag Day 2017 – Betsy and Carl Sandstrom – thanks to all for making Tag Day a great success. Tag Day brought in $8,814.29 with donations still coming in.

Barnes and Noble Gift Wrap, Lee Ann Sklar reached out to Barnes and Noble. Waiting for reply.

Discount Cards: will work with Drama and Chorus to sell cards from the Fine Arts Department

Cheesecake Sales: Ginger Fletcher – shared fundraiser with Chorus. Flyers will be in next week – mid-October. We sell for a two week period. Delivery: November 20th

Craft Fair: Ginger Fletcher – will arrange for band to have a booth. Students will stay after school to make ornaments to sell at the Craft Fair.

Car Wash Fundraisers planned for after winter break

EBPO Student Rep, Rose Sandstrom expressed thanks from students for providing food and support for the marching band on game and competition days. There was a report of a small group of students outside of band taking food. Precautions will be taken to prevent this from continuing.

Band Director Report , Charlie Mitchell

The itinerary for Stafford Competition is as expected.

Oakton Classic: EBPO will provide snacks. Mr. Mitchell will provide dinner. Students will place orders in advance with Mr. Mitchell. Oakton will have order ready at 5:30pm.

VBODA: arrival time 7:00am. EBPO will provide breakfast.

8th Grade Night: chaotic but positive reports from students, parents, teachers.

Band Banquet: discussion of available dates. Mr. Mitchell will reserve the cafeteria for Saturday, November 18, 2017 for the Band Banquet.

Spring Trip: Discussion. There is a possibility to attend an International Tattoo event in Norfolk. Conflicts with Edison Musical dates. The festival is two days, Edison students would participate in one of the festival.

New Business –

Banquet Committee: Betsy Sandstrom will send an email to organize a planning committee. The committee will meet prior to the November EBPO meeting and report updates.

Meeting adjourned at 8:02pm
